Big mountain, small price: Save up to 50% this summer at Alaska's Denali National Park
Save $100 per room and get a $100 resort credit with every booking

---

Anchorage, AK (April 19, 2010) > Families can enjoy visiting Denali National Park this summer through a new promotion announced by Denali Park Resorts, operator of McKinley Chalet Resort and McKinley Village Lodge. The "Summer Celebration" package gives visitors a $100 discount off the regular room rate at either property plus a $100 resort credit that can be applied to tours, meals, gift purchases and activities operated by Denali Park Resorts.

The "Summer Celebration" package gives visitors $100 off the regular room price at either McKinley Chalet Resort or McKinley Village Lodge – a savings of up to 34% off the normal room rate. The package also includes a $100 resort credit that can be used towards the purchase of tours into Denali National Park; the popular Alaska Cabin Nite dinner theater; rafting the Nenana River with Explore Denali Rafting; purchases at any of the four gift shops, and for food and beverages at any of the restaurants at McKinley Chalet Resort, McKinley Village Lodge and in the Park at the Morino Grill.

"This package was specifically created to make it incredibly affordable for more families to travel to Alaska's Denali National Park this summer. When you combine the room rate discount and the $100 resort credit, it's over a 50% discount," said Carol Fraser, director of sales and marketing for Denali Park Resorts.

The Summer Celebration package is valid from May 11 through September 20, 2010, subject to availability. To make a booking, call 866-296-0327 and ask for the package by name. Additional nights can be booked at the same discounted hotel rate.
