McKinley Village Lodge Named Property of the Year
Property and Employees Receive High Marks from Hotel & Lodging Association

Anchorage, Alaska--February 28, 2011--McKinley Village Lodge, an ARAMARK Parks and Destination property, was selected as the Outstanding Property of the Year by the Alaska Hotel and Lodging Association at the annual Stars of the Industry Awards. In addition, the Doyon/ARAMARK joint venture received the Good Earthkeeping Award for their outstanding environmental efforts inside Denali National Park and three members of the ARAMARK Parks and Destinations team were honored for their dedication to improving the guest experience.

"We have great respect for the Alaska Hotel & Lodging Association making their recognition all the more meaningful," said Craig Pester, district manager of Alaska operations for ARAMARK Parks and Destinations. "These awards are an inspiration, and affirm our dedication to the ultimate guest experience while protecting the environment."

The three employees honored at the February 12 event were: Samira Porter, Front Office Manager of the Year, Gretchen Weeks, Housekeeping Manager of the Year and Kim White, Guest Services Manager of the Year.

Each year, the Alaska Hotel and Lodging Association's Stars of the Industry Awards recognizes exceptional service and achievements in the hospitality industry. The awards honor star performers who have demonstrated outstanding accomplishments and celebrates employees and hotel properties that best symbolize the highest quality of service in the industry. Winners in each category will go on to compete in the American Hotel and Lodging Association's annual Stars of the Industry Awards program.

About the winners:

McKinley Village Lodge is a 188-room lodge located outside the entrance of Denali National Park. The recently-renovated property features a restaurant, gift shop and a variety of activity offerings with easy access to the park.

Samira Porter is the front office manager for the McKinley Village Lodge. She is a dedicated team player who continually goes the extra mile for her guests.

Gretchen Weeks is the executive housekeeper of the McKinley Chalet Resort. She is passionate about ensuring that her team have the tools for success, to do their job to the best of their ability.

Kim White is the director of safety and risk management for Denali Park Resorts. Kim provides health services at the Canyon Clinic, which serves the lodges and guests of the Denali corridor each summer.

Doyon/ARAMARK Joint Venture is the operator of bus tours, park shuttles, food and beverage outlets, campground and retail outlets within Denali National Park. It is a joint partnership between Doyon Limited and ARAMARK Parks and Destinations and is an authorized concessionaire of the National Park Service.
